

6516207770.txt

I don't think it is right for the broadcasters or the lobbyist to say what is good for me when it comes to listening to the radio. It never fails that when something good comes out that they want to stop it from being used. lobbyist do not represent the majority of the people and if they are allowed to get the government to stop xmradio then they have violated my constitutional rights by not allowing me my freedom of choice... thank